13-14 Youth Development Program Call for Facilitators

Surf Life Saving Central Coast is seeking nominations from members interested in becoming a Facilitator for the 2018-2019 Newcastle Permanent 13-14's Youth Development Program Camp.

Facilitators have the potential to build valuable skills in presenting, evaluating and mentoring, which will provide them with further opportunities for development in leadership and training. This is an important step within the SLSCC opportunities and pathways framework.

Youth Development Program Facilitators play an important role in the planning and implementation of a variety of Programs SLSCC delivers to support the development of its members. The role of Development Program Facilitator requires individuals to work in a team environment, presenting, supporting, supervising and ensuring that Development Program aims are achieved.

We are seeking Development Program Facilitators for the 13-14 years Youth Development Program.

What's it about?

General roles and responsibilities of Development Program Facilitators include:

- Being responsible for the supervision and safety of program participants
- Supporting SLSCC in the planning, implementation and evaluation of programs and activities
- Mentoring participants and presenting yourself as a positive role model
- Maintaining open communication channels with SLSCC staff
- Being available for the duration of the nominated program
- Abiding by Working with Children Guidelines
- Abiding by SLSA Code of Conduct

Who can become a Facilitator?

Members who wish to apply as Youth Development Program Facilitator should:

- Be a current financial SLSA member
- May have previous involvement (either as a participant or facilitator) in Club, Branch or State Leadership Programs, or alternatively in community based programs
- Be a responsible and trust-worthy person
- Able to work in a team environment
- Aspire to become a leader at Club, Branch or State level in Surf Lifesaving
- Hold a current Apply First Aid Certificate
- Hold a current Surf Rescue Certificate or Bronze Medallion

What is the nomination process?

Interested members are asked to complete the Online Application Form by Monday 1st October 2018. All applications will be collated and sent to their respective Clubs for endorsement. Successful facilitators will be notified shortly after this date.
