SLSCC is the leading body for surf safety on the Central Coast. Over the years, we have delivered Beach Safety Talks, Surf Survival Certificates and Surf Fun Days to thousands of school aged children on the Central Coast. The Surf Life Saving Central Coast (SLSCC) School Community Education Program for the 2021-2022 season will commence again in Term 4 of this school year with an aim to develop surf awareness, surf safety skills and potentially save lives. We will be delivering surf safety to the local school community at various locations across the Central Coast, predominantly based at Toowoona Bay, Terrigal & Umina beaches.

SLSCC requires energetic, bubbly and enthusiastic Casual Surf Education Instructors for the period from October 2021 to December 2021 with a possibility of further extension to March 2022.
