Surf Life Saving Central Coast hosts the Raising of the Flags event to signify the start of the surf season and the opening of our 15 patrolled beaches. As lifesavers this is a special occasion to celebrate as we begin our community service to provide a safe place to swim for 33 weeks of the season.

Date: Saturday 24th September 2022
Location: Terrigal SLSC
Time: 8:30 marshalling, 9am Start
RSVP: Raising of the Flags RSVP

This season to mark the occasion we will be adding some extra elements to the celebration with a Rookie March, UAV and RWC Demonstrations and a Community Education activation.

Rookies

Rookies will be marching from the Haven to Terrigal SLSC across the Boardwalk. Rookie Coordinators please ensure all your available Rookies are at the Haven by 8:30 am to receive your briefing before marching to Terrigal SLSC.

At the conclusion of the celebration there will be Rookie photo of each club supplied by our SLSCC Photographer and a BBQ for all Rookies in attendance.

Please complete the RSVP with the number of Rookies and club representatives attending – Raising of the Flags RSVP

Club Presidents

All presidents are invited to attend the celebration as the representative of the Surf Club. If you are unable to attend please ensure you send a proxy

Please complete the RSVP with the number of Rookies and club representatives attending – Raising of the Flags RSVP

Please note - Clubs who fail to be represented at this event will incur the loss of 1 point in the 'Club of the Year' competition.
