The 2022-23 Newcastle Permanent Youth Leadership Program targets U17 – U19 members who have qualities that can be developed to enhance their future and that of Surf Lifesaving. It is also geared toward creating greater awareness of opportunities for these members. Potential participants can come from a range of different backgrounds, interests, and areas of focus within the club environment.

Participants will take part in workshops and presentations for focused learning, in addition to some physical activities and challenges. They will also complete problem-solving exercises, face personal challenges and participate in team-based activities; all delivered under the guidance of active leaders from Surf Life Saving and the community.

Clubs are encouraged to use this program as a method of recognising members who have the potential to develop skills further by working with like-minded youth. SLSCC will offer workshops to support participants in developing initiative, teambuilding, and organisational skills to become capable leaders in our organisation.

Once online nominations have closed, clubs will be sent their members nominations for ranking. Clubs will be allocated two (2) positions in the program and should rank all other interested applicants in preferential order. It would be ideal to have one male and one female applicant per club. Positions not filled will be allocated to the most promising applicants from other clubs.

Surf Life Saving Central Coast encourages members to be vaccinated for all Surf Life Saving activities. Surf Life Saving Central Coast.

Interested member are to complete the online nomination form; https://form.jotform.com/222778916809876 online before Sunday 16th October 2022.

Overview

Leadership is a vital factor in the continued development of Australian communities. Surf Life Saving Central Coast (SLSCC) is committed to the personal development of identified leaders within its membership and the wider community.

This year, SLSCC is conducting their 15th Youth Leadership Program targeting U17 – U19 members. This age bracket is vital in completing an effective Leadership and Development Pathway for SLSCC, and thus the Program was developed.

The Program

The program this year will consist of four (4) different activities which will be held throughout the 2022-2023 season that are aimed at members who have qualities that can be developed to enhance their future and that of Surf Life Saving.

Participants will take part in workshops and presentations for focused learning, in addition to some physical activities and challenges. They will also complete problem-solving exercises, face personal challenges and participate in team based activities all delivered under the guidance of active leaders from Surf Life Saving and the community.

It is also geared toward creating greater awareness of opportunities for these members. Potential participants can come from a range of different backgrounds, interests and areas of focus within the club environment.

Aims of the 2022/2023 Youth Leadership Program include:

- To provide basic training in leadership and development
- To create situations that promote fun learning experiences
- To create an awareness of current issues, pathways and opportunities
- To promote teamwork, communication skills, networking and goal setting
- To develop confidence and self-esteem in a supportive environment whilst positively recognising members
- Provide opportunities for ideas to be exchanged
- To gain knowledge of the structure of surf lifesaving
- And have fun!

Commitment

It is expected that each participant will be fully committed and available for all the 2022-2023 Youth Leadership Program activities.
