Surf Life Saving Central Coast hosts the Raising of the Flags event to signify the start of the surf season and the opening of our 15 patrolled beaches. As lifesavers this is a special occasion to celebrate as we begin our community service to provide a safe place to swim for 33 weeks of the season.

Date: Saturday 23rd September 2023
Location: Terrigal SLSC
Time: 8:30am marshalling at Terrigal Haven, 9am Start
RSVP: Sunday 17th September 2023 - Raising of the Flags RSVP

To mark the occasion we will be adding to the celebration with a Rookie March from Terrigal Haven along the boardwalk along with a UAV and RWC Demonstration.

Rookies

Rookies will be marching from the Haven to Terrigal SLSC across the Boardwalk. Rookie Coordinators please ensure all your available Rookies are at the Haven by 8:30 am to receive your briefing before marching to Terrigal SLSC.

At the conclusion of the celebration there will be Rookie photo of each club supplied by our SLSCC Photographer and a BBQ for all Rookies in attendance.

Please complete the RSVP with the number of Rookies and club representatives attending – Raising of the Flags - RSVP

Club Presidents

All presidents are invited to attend the celebration in the surf club as the representative of the Surf Club. If you are unable to attend please ensure you send a proxy.

Please complete the RSVP with the names of Rookies and club representative attending – Raising of the Flags - RSVP

Please note - Clubs who fail to be represented at this event will incur the loss of 1 point in the 'Club of the Year' competition.
