Action	Interested members are to submit their applications for Casual Community Education Instructor and Supervisor roles for our Community Education Program via the links below.

Surf Life Saving Central Coast (SLSCC) is the leading body for aquatic safety on the Central Coast and delivers annually the following programs to thousands of school aged students on the Central Coast:-

- Beach Safety Talks
- Surf Awareness Program
- Surf Fun Days

The SLSCC season will commence again in Term 4 of this school year with an aim to educate and develop surf awareness, surf safety skills and potentially save lives. Our programs will be delivered to local school communities at various locations across the Central Coast, predominantly based at Toowoona Bay, Terrigal & Umina beaches.

SLSCC is recruiting both Instructors and Supervisors for Term 4.

SLSCC requires energetic, bubbly and enthusiastic Casual Surf Education Instructors and Supervisors for the period from October 2024 to December 2024. If you have previously been a Surf Education Instructor or Supervisor please advise your interest to return to our program.
